GRACE MANOR UNVEILS LIBRARY

Buffalo - Grace Manor Health Care Facility will install a new library area in its facility at 10 Symphony Circle on Monday, September 30, 2002 at 10 AM. The reception will honor the generosity of Quebecor World Buffalo for their donation of 1000 books and Canterbury Woods residents for designing, constructing and delivering the new bookcases.

“Grace Manor is a non-profit facility with a mission for caring for the needful elderly and underserved in our community,” said President & CEO David J. Gentner. “The only way we can be successful is with the support of community partners, such as, Quebecor World and Canterbury Woods. Our residents, their guests and our staff now have a new resource to enrich their lives.”

Mr. Gentner was formerly the Associate Director/Administrator at Canterbury Woods. The residents of the suburban facility collected funds for supplies and made the bookcases in the Canterbury Woods Woodworking Shop. “This is Regionalism really working!”, said Kevin Burke, Executive Director of Canterbury Woods.

Kevin J. Clarke, Vice President/General Manager, Quebecor World Buffalo, stated, “Quebecor and our employees are pleased to be helping Grace Manor to add comfort and dignity to the care of our neediest elder citizens.”
